

TOP REASONS TO BE A WAMSS MEMBER

1. Collaboration – Work together with various medical staff professional associations and physician certification/licensing agencies to realize shared goals, knowledge and resources.
2. Access – Find new employment opportunities or advertise one through “Careers” on the WAMSS website.
3. Information – Keep up with the latest issues and industry information that affects Medical Staff Professionals (MSPs) through our newsletter, WAMSS website, Facebook, LinkedIn and e-Blasts to our members.
4. Leadership Opportunities – Gain personal and professional growth, as well as a broader view of the depth and vision for the association, by taking on a leadership role. If you are not ready to jump into a leadership role, there are many opportunities that also exist to volunteer for committees and special projects. One of the biggest assets we have as an association is the vision, values and dedication of WAMSS volunteers and leaders.
5. Marketing Materials – Visit the WAMSS website for access to materials that promote our Association and our profession, as well as National Medical Staff Services Awareness week, the first week of November, and educate others about the value and importance of MSPs.
6. Shared Resources – Don’t recreate the wheel! Share ideas/documents with other MSPs relating to standards, regulations and other newsworthy items, including sample policies, forms and templates.
7. Education – Gain the knowledge you need to do your job through opportunities like WAMSS Annual Conference and much more.
8. Networking – Connect with other MSPs who can help you answer the questions you face on the job. Post your questions online or look up contact information in the online membership roster for WAMSS members
9. Enrichment – WAMSS Members have full use of the Lending Library to enrich their knowledge of Medical Staff and Credentialing processes. The Library currently has over 40 resources available and new items are being added regularly.
10. And the #1 reason to be a WAMSS Member: BELONG... to an association of like-minded individuals endeavoring to make a difference in the quality of healthcare provided in our communities, our State and our Nation.
